Senior Center Christmas Party: The annual Senior Center Christmas Party will be on Sunday, December 15, 2013. Cocktails will be at 4:00 p.m. and food will be served at 5:00 p.m. at the Hideout Steakhouse. The entertainment and other details will follow next month.

Activities and Volunteer Coordinator's Report: Activities for October were reviewed. A new volunteer was trained for the lunch check-in desk due to snowbird volunteers leaving for the season. S. Schroeder attended a seminar in Wausau on October 4th on planning events, fundraising, negotiating and resources. She also attended a presentation at Nicolet College on volunteer recruitment on October 7th. There was pumpkin carving on October 25 for the DRI Pumpkin Glow on the Trig's green space. The annual Halloween party was a huge success with 45 people in attendance; most everyone was in an outrageous costume. Games were played, and there were prizes for the games as well as best costumes. There were munchies and punch throughout the party. The Community Blood Bank was also there on Halloween with a good turnout for donations.
